

Serious Fun: Poetry Workshop for Children ages 5-12

Saturday, April 5
2:30-4:30 pm

*Southside Library
5699 Jaguar*

Join Jon Davis, Santa Fe Poet Laureate, for an afternoon of poems and fun.

Poetry is serious business, but it's also fun. The poet William Carlos Williams (ignoring the rules of good grammar) once said, "If it ain't a pleasure, it ain't a poem."

I agree. So we're going to play a series of poetry games. We'll write some group poems, write poems that sound good but might not mean anything, and "mad lib" some famous poems. And somewhere along the way we'll talk about the "seriousness."

Sign up at SouthSide Friends bookstore to reserve your space or register by phone, 955-2839, or email friends@santafelibraryfriends.org. Sponsored by the Friends of the Santa Fe Public Library.
