Friends of the Santa Fe Public Library

January 2015

Friends of the Santa Fe Public Library raise funds for the purchase of new books, media, and other items for our public libraries, by donations, grants and the sale of books given to the library. Sales offer a wide variety of very low-priced books, both hardcovers and paperbacks.

Friends of the Santa Fe Public Library Annual Membership Meeting

Community Room
Southside Branch Library
6599 Jaguar Drive
(corner of Jaguar and Country Club)

Sunday, January 25
1 - 4 p.m.

All members of the Friends are invited to attend this meeting. The business meeting will include changes to Article VII of the Bylaws and will be followed by a speaker and refreshments.

For more information, contact Maggie Kinsey, Administrative Assistant for the Friends of the Santa Fe Public Library at friends@santafelibraryfriends.org.

Proposed changes to ARTICLE VII of the BYLAWS
FRIENDS OF THE SANTA FE PUBLIC LIBRARY, INC.

(Note: Deletions in ~~strikeout~~; additions in italics.)

ARTICLE VII. ENDOWMENT FUND

- A. The Endowment Fund consists of: 1. Contributions from donors who specifically designate their inclusion in this Fund; funds designated by the FOL Board for the endowment; or 2. Funds placed here by the FOL Board for asset management purposes. All such monies of each category are held separately, and the principal of funds in (1) above may not be invaded. Value of all funds shall be marked to market periodically to reflect current value. ~~Dividend and interest income from the investment of all these funds is available annually for allocation by the FOL Board for library materials, library program enhancements, and/or library furniture, fixtures and equipment, etc., and/or FOL Board expenditures.~~
- B. The management of the Endowment Fund is the responsibility of the Endowment Advisory Committee (EAC) consisting of the FOL President (or designee), ~~Treasurer,~~ and up to five (5) members-at-large who are knowledgeable about investment and may be appointed with the advice and consent of the EAC.
- C. The term of each appointed EAC member is two (2) years with unlimited reappointment with the consent of the EAC.
- D. The EAC is charged with management and protection of the principal of the Fund as well as recommending investment of the principal. ~~This Committee is considered a subcommittee of the Finance Committee.~~
- E. ~~At its regular October meeting, the EAC will recommend to the FOL Board, a distribution rate of up to a maximum of 5% of endowment assets. The rate shall be determined with reference to the average total return on investments for the preceding three-year period and shall not be greater than this average.~~
Annually at the October meeting, the EAC will make a recommendation to the Board for a distribution rate not to exceed 4% of the endowment assets or the total of dividend and interest income, whichever is greater. The Board will make an annual allocation, based on the recommendation from the EAC, for library materials, library program enhancements, and/or library furniture, fixtures, and equipment, etc. and/or Board expenditures.

Accepting the Award for the Friends are Judy Bronson, Dona McDermott, Wendy Hitt, Roxanne Gonzales and Kitty Sherlock, Friends members.

In December, Mayor Javier Gonzales honored the Friends of the Library with a ¡Muchísimas Gracias! Award in honor of their 40th Anniversary.

¡MUCHÍSIMAS GRACIAS! TO THE FRIENDS OF THE SANTA FE PUBLIC LIBRARY IN HONOR OF OF THEIR 40TH ANNIVERSARY

“Since 1974, the non-profit Friends of the Santa Fe Public Library has helped to support the Santa Fe Public Library by raising money to provide the resources for additional programming, much-needed materials and equipment, support for children’s summer reading and other programs, and special events throughout the year. The Friends commit their time and resources to preserve and enhance our libraries for generations today and tomorrow because they understand the critical importance of a well-funded library to our community. In the past year, from July 2013 through June 2014, a total of 119 Friends volunteers contributed 9,425 hours of their time to support the Santa Fe Public Library.

Now, therefore, in honor of their fortieth anniversary and forty years of service to the community of Santa Fe, the City of Santa Fe presents this Muchísimas Gracias Award to the Friends of the Santa Fe Public Library.”
